PROCLAMATION.

In the good Providence of God another year has passed, and its memories and its fruits have been gathered up. Toward all mankind He has exhibited abundant mercies, and upon us he has showered innumerable blessings. Seed time and harvest came and are gone, and the fat earth hath yielded its great harvests and its fruits every tree and every plant bearing seed after its kind. His how has been still in the clouds. His avenging rod has been withheld, and the pestilence that walketh in darkness, and the destruction that wasteth at noonday, have passed by us.

In science and art, and in intellectual development, the whole earth has been astonished at continued and startling successes and achievements. All trades, business avocations, professions and pursuits, have met everywhere with the success they have deserved. In all things commendable and useful, and of good report, we have met the approving smile of our Father who is in Heaven.

The works of the Lord are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.

His work is honorable and glorious, and his righteousness endureth forever.

He hath made His wonderful works to be remembered, the Lord is gracious and full of compassion.

He hath given meat unto them that fear Him; He will ever be mindful of His covenant.

The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom; a good understanding have all they that do His commandments; His praise endureth forever.

For all his bounties and mercies, and loving kindness and care, we owe the homage of grateful, humble and obedient hearts. Following a venerable and wisely instituted custom, I therefore do here appoint, Thursday, the 25th day of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer and Praise. And I commend that day to the observance of the good people of this State, enjoining them to abstain thereon from all secular avocations and employments, excepting only works of necessity and mercy.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name, and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed.

Done at Madison, this 27th day of October, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred fifty-eight.

By the Governor, ALEX. W. RANDALL.

J. D. REDDEL, Ass't Sec'y of State.

The News.

The steamer St. Louis, which arrived at New York yesterday, brings California dates to the 5th inst. The people of the "Golden State" rejoiced enthusiastically upon the success of the Atlantic Telegraph. About this time they are probably rather "down in the mouth." The steamer's news is quite interesting and a full synopsis will be found under the telegraph head. Oregon advices confirm the news by the overland mail relative to difficulties with the Indians. Two hostile chiefs had been captured and shot. The news from the North Pacific whalers is rather gloomy. A meeting of the Presidents of the States of Central America was projected, relative to the question of the formation of a federation out of the various States. Advices from South America indicate a disturbed state of affairs in that portion of the world.

A citizen of Beloit, named DANIEL BLODGETT, was dangerously stabbed by a burglar on Wednesday night.

A plot has been discovered in Mexico to assassinate the President and his Ministers.

The New York Breadstuffs Market was tolerably active yesterday, and wheat and flour a shade firmer. Our own, as well as the Chicago Market, continues buoyant.

In regard to the weather yesterday, we have only to say, it rained all the morning, it rained all the afternoon, it rained all the evening, and gave pretty strong indications of raining all night.

THE PEOPLE'S TICKET.—The Wisconsin and Free Democrat of last evening both take ground against the ticket nominated at the People's Convention on Wednesday, and intimate that all, or nearly all of the candidates will withdraw.—They both urge the formation of a new ticket in opposition to that of the "Court House clique."

A SCREW LOOSE IN THE WESTERN DISTRICT.

Douglas Men "Sailing Out" Judge Dunn!

The following significant communication appears in yesterday's Chicago Herald, a zealous Administration organ. It would seem, from the revelations therein made, that the Douglas Democrats in this State are trying, by underhanded means, to kill off Judge DUNN, in the Western District, who is running on the Buchanan Platform. The "circular" referred to embodies a number of extracts from newspapers, charging Judge DUNN with being a Know-Nothing. If the DOUGLAS men "bolt" DUNN, why should the BUCHANAN men support BROWN and LABRABEE?

Wisconsin Politics.

MILTON, Oct. 20.

MR. EDITOR:—In a communication published in the Herald, not long since, the political character of the candidates for Congress in Wisconsin, was well and truthfully defined, but no one then suspected that the supporters of treason and Douglas, in Wisconsin, who by some means or other, secured the nomination of two candidates for Congress to the National Democracy's one, would resort to frauds and forgery to defeat that one.

Cowardly and mean as it may appear, it nevertheless true, that this contemptible anti-Administration faction in Wisconsin is doing all in its power, clandestinely, to defeat Judge Dunn, the Democratic nominee in the 2d District, the only nominee for Congress in Wisconsin, who is not fully committed in favor of Douglas' scheme to disorganize the Democratic party.

An in cog. circular has recently been printed in a certain office in the city of Milwaukee, one of whose editors and proprietors shared largely in Executive favor, during the late and present Administration, the weight of whose private and political character, however, was more than the Administration, with all its power could sustain, when put in the balance in Executive session, in the U. S. Senate.

I enclose you a copy of this circular, for publication. As it carries the damnable design to prejudice the mind of foreign-born Democrats in this district, upon its face, it needs but a careful reading to make it entirely harmless. A knowledge of its paternity imposes the duty to expose this unprincipled clique of disorganizers, who have concocted and published this specimen Douglas brick; its circulation is stealthy, and in perfect keeping with the mode of warfare, of the "GLORIOUS AMERICANS," of whom Douglas speaks so approvingly. The fact, that one of the partners in the office that printed this circular is a Know Nothing, of a high order, accounts for the peculiarity of this midnight attempt, at the political assassination of a Democratic candidate in the house of his friends.

But, when in the course of its mission, this beautiful billet was cautiously exhibited, with a knowing look, ostensibly to satisfy Mr. Dunn's Irish friends that his election was safe, but clearly designed to have a contrary effect, its paternity was at once detected by the type; and the miserable tool in the hands of this band of traitors, coward-like, acknowledge the FRAUD, but insisted that it was a Democratic fraud, because it came from a Democratic office. Let the world read it, and let the miserable authors blush—if there is yet a speck of shame left in their jaundiced composition, may they carry to their graves the mark or Cain. JOHN DOE.

AN OPINION OF CONGRESS.—Mr. Gurley, Republican, elected to Congress in Cincinnati, was formerly a Universalist minister. One of his opponents was trying to persuade an old Methodist not to vote for him. "Do you think you are furthering the cause of religion," said he, "by voting for a Universalist—one who does not believe in a hell?" "Yes," was the old Methodist's reply; "if by the time Mr. Gurley has been in Congress a year, he does not believe there is a hell, then I don't understand the present Administration. I shall vote for him."

The Great Bugbear.

The Sentinel publishes a communication from a "tax payer," on the subject of the State assuming the indebtedness of the cities, towns, counties, &c., contracted by them in loaning their ties, &c., contracted by them in loaning their credit to railroad companies. If there is any such scheme on foot, it will develop itself in due time, as it cannot be consummated without a change in our State constitution, and that can only be affected by submitting the proposition directly to the people, who will be fully prepared by that time to vote understandingly upon it.—The legislature may, if it chooses, submit such a proposition, and when submitted, the people may ratify or reject it at the polls. We know nothing of the project, and feel very little interest in it at present.—News of yesterday.

It may be true that the News feels "very little interest" in this matter, at present, but we can scarcely credit its statement that it "knows nothing of the project." A daily newspaper, in these days, can hardly be ignorant of what every body is talking about.

This "great bugbear," as the News terms it, is simply a proposition that the State shall assume some eight or ten millions of corporate and individual obligations, incurred in the construction of the various Rail Roads in Wisconsin. It is true that the People must pass upon this project, before it can be put in force; but it is of the first importance that the Legislature, who are to decide upon the details of the scheme, should be composed of intelligent, practical and entirely reliable men. We think, therefore, that, however it may be with the News, THE PEOPLE will "feel interest" enough in this project to "look TO THE LEGISLATURE!"

THE MORAL OF JONES' DEFEAT.—A Washington correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer writes:

I look upon the rejection of Mr. Jones as an event of great moment in another aspect. It marks the beginning of the regeneration of Pennsylvania; and, greater still, it shows that the work of emancipating the noble German mind in the United States from the servitude of catchwords, from devotion to African slavery, and from the tyranny of sham Democracy, has gone so far as to overthrow those influences in their very citadel. Let the Germans of Illinois and the Great West remember in all future conflicts, that the most ancient seat of German power on this Continent has yielded to the force of truth, and has spurned slavery and the leaders of the servile Democracy. This is the moral drawn from the defeat of J. Glancy Jones.

The Stephens Wife Poisoning Case.

We are able to give our readers to-day a full report of the chemical analysis of the body of Sophia Stephens, who was suspected of having been poisoned to death over a year ago by her husband, James Stephens, previously to this a respected citizen of New York, and class leader in the Methodist Episcopal Church. The analysis has been the most complete and thorough ever performed in this country, this being, in fact the first time that the entire human body has been chemically taken to pieces. The result, as will appear from the report, is decidedly prejudicial to Mr. Stephens' case, the analysis having discovered the existence of arsenic in large quantities, and diffused through all portions of the body, more than enough to have caused death.

The history of the case, thus far, has been a remarkable one, and the prominent points will bear repetition.

One day, about the middle of September last, a young man named Robert Bell was arrested, on a warrant issued by Justice Welsh, for an attempt to shoot Stephens with a pistol. The pistol was loaded with two balls, one of which is said to have rolled out before the pistol was discharged, and the other, owing, it is believed, to the insufficiency of the charge of powder, only went through his coat and lodged in the collar, doing no bodily injury. Mr. Chauncey Shaeffer was sent for to defend the prisoner, and on conversing with him, learned that the cause of the attempt was a strong conviction in his mind that Stephens had murdered his wife, Sophia Stephens, (the prisoner's aunt,) by administering poison. Mr. Schaeffer had an interview with the Misses Bell, sisters of the prisoner, who were living at Stephens' house when their aunt died, and the result was that upon their affidavits, corroborating the suspicions of Robert Bell, Justice Welsh issued his warrant for the arrest of Stephens on the charge of murder. Coroner Cooney was notified, and on the 23d of September, just one year after her death, the body of Mrs. Stephens was disinterred at Greenwood Cemetery, and removed to Bellevue Hospital. A post mortem examination took place, after which the body was consigned to Dr. Doremus for chemical analysis. The inquest in the meantime proceeded, (the examination before Justice Welsh having been suspended,) and it was proved that before his wife's death Stephens had proffered improper attentions to Miss Sophia Bell, that he had threatened to leave his wife, and called her "old and peevish," (she was some fifteen years his senior); that during her last illness he gave her suspicious looking powders and large doses of laudanum; that he would suffer no one but himself to give her medicines, and that he had twice made purchases of arsenic about this time, under pretence of poisoning rats.

The Bells are said to be of the "first families" in Ireland, several of the brothers of Mr. Stephens being Protestant clergymen. The Misses Bell had lived with Stephens in 28th street two or three years previous to the death of their aunt. They entertained suspicions at the time of her death, but dared not make them known, in consequence of the threats of Stephens to have them expelled from the church and ruin their characters if they said anything against him. A letter from Fanny, vaguely hinting a suspicion at length reached their friends in Ireland, and their brother Robert, an impetuous young man, at once came over and attempted to take the law into his own hands.

The coroner's jury re-assembled at Bellevue Hospital this morning, the prisoner, Stephens, being present.

The chemist's report was accompanied by a case of tubes and glasses, covered with arsenic in the various forms in which it was found during the investigation. These specimens are marked and numbered, and often referred to in the report.

Forney on the Jones Affair.

The Philadelphia Press makes light of John's ministerial appointment, after this fashion:

Let us fancy Mr. John G. Jones at the Court of Vienna, conversing [through the medium of an interpreter] with the Prime Minister. What if the functionary asks him what special services towards the United States recommended him to the high diplomatic office of Ambassador to Austria, what reply can he stammer out. Shall he say, "I did little as a clergyman, and less as a lawyer, so I turned politician, being what is familiarly termed 'rather hard up.' I pursuaded the honest, simple-minded, true men of Berks county, in Pennsylvania, that I would serve them faithfully. They believed me, and returned me to Congress. Very speedily, by a miraculous process often practiced at Washington by legislative Micawbers, I emerged from humble into wealthy circumstances. I ingratiated myself with the President, and frequently dined at his table.

To swell my own importance and show how well I had got on, I publicly taunted a better man than myself with not having had his legs under the Presidential mahogany; I voted against the Sovereignty of the People, which I was elected to support; and, finally, returning back to seek re election from my constituents, was defeated."

The Austrian Count, if he has any taste for humor, may smile, while he says, "Ah, Monsieur l'Ambassadeur, I perceive you owe your appointment here to your unfortunate disappointment at home! You come from a strange country, where, because a county kicks you, the government elevates you to high office. They say, in fact, that because your own neighbors, who know you well, think you unfit to represent them in Congress, you are just fit to represent our nation at a Foreign Court."

How his Excellency, the Ambassador, will receive such a taunt as this—which may be looked as well as spoken—we leave to the lively imagination of our readers.

HERMAN'S CHALLENGE.—The following card appears in the New York papers of Saturday last:

Myself and friends not being satisfied with my defeat by John Morrissey, on Wednesday last, through sickness, which laid me on my bed for six days previous to the day of fighting, and I only met him on that day to prevent animadversions from himself or his partizans, being totally unfit for the struggle; and to show that I wished to fight under all disadvantages, I waived my right to claim a turf-sodded ring, according to the first article of the New London Rules. I hereby challenge him to fight me for $5,000 a side, or upwards, and the Championship of America, in four or six months from the first deposit.

JOHN C. HERMAN.

Senator Seward at Rochester.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 25, 1858.

Senator Seward addressed a very large Republican meeting in this city to night. Corinthian Hall was crowded to excess. He spoke about one hour and a half, and dwelt chiefly upon the subject of slavery, showing first, what were the intentions of the framers of the Constitution, and second, what has been the tendency of the Government under the control of the aristocracy of Slavery. This country, he said, must eventually be wholly Free or altogether Slave territory. He arraigned the Democratic party as the great ally of the Slave Power.—Democratic Administrations merely recorpits behests. The next demand of the Slave Power will be the abrogation of the law suppressing the slave trade, and so they will import from Africa, at the cost of only $20 ahead, slaves enough to fill up the interior of the continent.—Thus, relatively increasing the number of Slave States, they will allow no amendments to the Constitution prejudicial to their interests, and having permanently established their power they will expect the Federal judiciary to nullify all State laws which shall interfere with the internal or foreign commerce in slaves.

When the Free States shall be sufficiently demoralized to tolerate those designs, they may reasonably conclude that Slavery will be accepted by these States themselves. If it were possible to conceive for a moment that the Democratic party should disobey the behests of the slaveholders, we should then see a withdrawal of the slaveholders, who would leave the party to perish. The portion of the party which is found in the Free States is a mere appendage, convenient to modify its sectional character without impairing its sectional constitution, and is less effective in regulating its movement than the nebulous tail of the comet is in determining its appointed though apparent eccentric course in the fiery sphere from which it emanates. Senator S. finally spoke of the policy of the Republican party as contrasted with that of the Democratic, and alluded to the recent successes of the former in Pennsylvania and the West. His concluding remarks were as follows:

"The secret of its assumed success lies in that very characteristic which in the mouths of scoffers constitutes a great and lasting imbecility and reproach. It lies in the fact that it is a party of one idea, but that idea is a noble one—an idea that fills and expands all generous souls—the idea of equality—the equality of all men before human tribunals and human laws, as they all are equal before the divine tribunal and divine laws. I know and you know that a revolution has begun. I know and all the world knows that revolutions never go backward. Twenty Senators and a hundred representatives proclaim boldly in Congress, to-day, sentiments which not so many men, even in this free State, dared to utter in their own homes twenty years ago, while the Government of the United States under the conduct of the Democratic party has been all that time surrendering one plain and castle after another to Slavery. The people of the United States have been no less steadily and perseveringly by gathering together the forces with which to recover back again all the fields and all the castles which have been lost, and to confound and overthrow, by one decisive blow, the betrayers of the Constitution and of Freedom forever.

REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.

THE Republicans of the First and Seventh Wards, are requested to meet at the Court House this (Friday) evening, at 7 o'clock, to nominate a Republican Candidate for Member of Assembly.

BY ORDER OF DIST. COM.

To the Electors of Milwaukee Co.

I HEREBY announce myself as an independent candidate for election to the office of County Treasurer, and if elected will perform the duties of the office to the best of my ability, and I herewith earnestly solicit your patronage. TIMOTHY CARNEY.

Milwaukee, Oct. 20, 1858. oct21.h&3dtf

To the Electors of Milwaukee.

I RESPECTFULLY submit my name to the Electors of the City and County of Milwaukee, as an Independent Candidate for Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, at the ensuing election.

oct23d3t F. W. HUNDHAUSEN.

THE UNITED STATES REVENUE CUTTER.—We made mention a day or two since of the arrival of the United States Revenue Cutter, A. V. Brown, which has been placed under the direction of the Collector of this port, to enforce observance of the Revenue Laws on Lake Michigan. Yesterday we paid a visit to the new Revenue Cutter, in company with Mr. WEIS, one of the obliging clerks of the Custom House. At present, she lies in the river, a short distance from the straight cut, on the north side, where she will remain until after the 1st of November. The A. V. Brown is a very handsome and substantial little vessel of about thirty tons burthen, and is rigged in the schooner style, carrying a large spread of canvass for so small a craft. She was built at Milan, together with one of the same description for each of the other Lakes, and for a short time was stationed at Sandusky, whence she was ordered by the Secretary of the Treasury to take up her quarters at this port.

The business of the Revenue Cutter will be to see that the United States shipping regulations are observed on Lake Michigan, over which her jurisdiction exists. She is the first vessel of the kind ever placed on this Lake, and the fact of Milwaukee being made her station is a compliment for which our citizens have reason to be gratified.

The Lake Revenue Cutters were all built and rigged with a special eye to speed, and at the same time they are staunch and sea-worthy, and constructed of the most durable materials. The one which has been stationed at this port is finished in elegant style and her deck is kept as clean and neat as a drawing room. The officers' cabin occupies nearly one half of the vessel aft. It is carpeted and beautifully furnished, and altogether as cozy a little appartment as one could desire to see. In the fore part are the seamen's quarters and the kitchen, all down in the hold. In many places she is furnished with mahogany, and the entire bottom is copper lined, and she is provided with an excellent centre board, and all the modern conveniences for safety and service, including two fine life boats.

Her crew consists of ten men, and she is commanded by Captain HENRY A. MITCHELL, and Lieutenant JOHN A. UNDERWOOD, two as agreeable and polite gentlemen as could be found in Uncle Sam's service.

The A. V. Brown carrys no large guns, the last treaty of peace with Great Britain prohibiting the United States from having more than one gun on the lakes, and that is carried by the steamer Michigan. She is provided, however, with an ample supply of rifles, pistols and cutlasses, which we trust it will not be found necessary to bring into requisition.

We understand that Captain MITCHELL contemplates making this city his permanent residence, and intends soon to remove his family here. We are gratified to welcome such a gentleman to our city.

First and Seventh Wards.

The Republican Electors of the First and Seventh Wards are reminded that a Caucus is to be held at the Court House this, Friday, evening, at 7 o'clock, to nominate a candidate for the Assembly. A full and punctual attendance of the Republican Electors of the District is urgently solicited.

To the Electors of Milwaukee.

The undersigned respectfully declines the nomination for Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, tendered to him by the so called People's Convention, on Wednesday, not having been a candidate for that office, and takes this opportunity of announcing himself to the Electors of Milwaukee County as an Independent Candidate for the office of County Treasurer.

TIMOTHY CARNEY.

Milwaukee, Oct. 28, 1858.

MR. WASON DECLINES.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 28th, 1858.

To General King, Editor of Sentinel:—

DEAR SIR—I respectfully decline the nomination for Coroner, made on the 27th inst., at the Court House. Yours, &c.,

ROBERT WASON.

EARLY CLOSING OF STORES.—We observe that a movement is on foot among the principal store-keepers of Chicago, to close their places of business at 7 o'clock every evening from the 1st of November to the 1st of April—Saturday evening excepted. A similar plan was adopted by a large number of our store-keepers last season, and we believe resulted alike to the satisfaction of employers and employees. We would respectfully suggest to our business men, the propriety and expediency of entering into a similar arrangement this season. For instance, if all the dry goods store-keepers would agree to close their places of business every evening at 7 o'clock during the time mentioned, people would make their arrangements so as to do their trading before that hour, and while the store-keepers could lose nothing in the way of trade, it would save them the expense of g-s-light—which is no trifling item in a large establishment—and give their clerks a little time for amusement, study, or devotion. The same with boot and shoe dealers, grocers, druggists, clothiers, crockery dealers, &c., &c. Who proposes to second the motion?

THE GOVERNOR'S PROCLAMATION.—It will be seen that Governor RANDALL has appointed the 25th of November as a day of General Thanksgiving, when it is expected that all good citizens will unite in observing this time-honored festival. The Governors of several other states have also named the 25th of the coming month for Thanksgiving Day, New Hampshire having set the example. The 25th of November is the Anniversary of the surrender of Fort du Quesne, which terminated the French rule on this Continent, and also of the evacuation of New York by the British, twenty years later, in prominent connection with both of which memorable victories is the name of WASHINGTON. These events lend a peculiar significance to a general celebration on that day.

CORDES' BUILDING.—The new building of Messrs. J. H. CORDES & Co., on the site of their other one, which it will be recollected fell last summer, burying a number of persons under the ruins, is now completed, and is a model in strength and architectural beauty. It is four stories high, and is located precisely where the other was, on Detroit, a few doors from East Water street, and will be used for the wholesale grocery business. The masonry of the new building was done by FRANK CHARNLY, who also put up the other one, which shows that Messrs. CORDES & Co. were satisfied that he was not responsible for the catastrophe.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.—John Johnson was convicted of disorderly conduct, and fined $10,00.

Susanna Stud, plead guilty to the charge of committing an assault and battery upon another female who had aroused her ire, and was compelled to pay $5 and something better for exercising her Amazonic propensities.

In our report a day or two since, the name of "James Hoyo" appeared, as having been fined for disorderly conduct, when it should have been James Hays.

EXPRESS FREIGHT LINE—IMPORTANT TO MERCHANTS.—In our advertising columns this morning, will be found the announcement of a new and fast Express Freight Line, just established between New York and Milwaukee, by the "North Shore" route. Goods by this Line, will be brought through in seven days, and at lower rates than ever before. Messrs. JOHNSON & OLMSTEAD, who manage the business, are entirely reliable and will fulfill all contracts they may make, to the letter. Our Merchants and others will do well to give them an early call.

QUICK TRIPS.—The Bark Badger State arrived in port Wednesday from Buffalo, with 160 tons coal, having made the trip around in 14 days and 18 hours, she having left two weeks ago on Tuesday.

The clipper bark Hans Crocker came in yesterday morning, with a cargo of lumber, having made the trip in 15 days and 16 hours, including three days detention at Port Huron in taking in 270,000 feet lumber. Deducing this, and the time of the trip is 12 days and 16 hours! When this is beat Captain FITZGERALD will try again.

INDEPENDENT CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY TREASURER.—GARRET BARRY announces himself as an independent candidate for County Treasurer.—Mr. BARRY is a very capable man and would fill the office in question most respectably.

ASSEMBLY NOMINATIONS.—The Democrats of the Lake, Oak Creek and Franklin Assembly District, have nominated JACOB BECK as their candidate for the Lower House, in the Milwaukee and Granville District, JOHN HANRAHAN and F. MOSCOWITZ are both running on the Democratic ticket.

SOME WEATHER!—Our October sunshine comes up missing. We have had a week of unsettled and unpleasant weather. Yesterday, it was rainy, muggy, dark, damp, and altogether disagreeable. The easterly wind and the dripping skies gave the whole city the blues.

JUNEAU GUARD SOIREE.—The Juneau Guard "open the ball" for the Fall and Winter Campaign, at the Light Guard Armory this evening. We anticipate a large turn-out of Military and civilians and a very pleasant and successful party.

LATE NEW YORK PAPERS.—We are indepted to SIGERSON, of the News Depot on East Water street, two or three doors north of the Sentinel Office, for New York papers in advance of the mail. He is in receipt of all the latest weeklies and periodicals.

☞ From present appearances of the weather, which is rain, the great sale of that Superfine Furniture which was to take place this morning, at the Bee Hive Store, 146 East Water street, will not take place if the rain continues—but if it does not rain, the sale will go on. So says CALEB WALL, and he wants ladies and all to attend. The sale will commence at 10 A. M. If it should rain the sale will not take place until Tuesday morning November 2nd, at 10 o'clock.

BREAST-PIN LOST.—Lost, last evening, somewhere between Mr. VAN COH's Jewelry store, and the corner of Oneida and Cass streets, a Lady's CAMEO BREAST-PIN. The finder will be liberally rewarded by leaving the same at the Counting Room of the DAILY SENTINEL. oct28d1t

The Last Week!

The present should be a busy week with Republicans. The unfinished work should be closed up systematically, so that nothing shall remain for Monday or Tuesday but to render the verdict of GUILTY against the Pro-Slavery Administration.

Assuming that the Canvass is now completed, nothing is wanting but THREE MEN with THREE TEAMS in EACH SCHOOL DISTRICT to bring every Republican voter to the Polls.

One other thing: There are "Ballot Box Stuffers" here as well as in Kansas. See, therefore, that the balloting begins with clean Boxes.

The only hope now remaining to the Dough Faces is that it may rain on Tuesday. Remember, friends, that the Sham Democracy always vote. IF IT SHOULD RAIN, BE SURE TO VOTE! Let your motto be: "Any rain but the reign of Dough Faces!"

A GROSS CALUMNY.—The People's Convention on Wednesday, by a very decisive vote, nominated Mr. JOHN W. BIELFELD for the office of County Treasurer. The News, with its usual propensity to disparage and misrepresent its opponents, thus assails Mr. BIELFELD:

Mr. B. is the keeper of a Sunday night dance-house, where women of dilapidated virginity, and gentlemen of questionable morality "most do congregate" sabbath evenings, and while away a few hours in hilarious jollity.

This is equally unjust and slanderous towards Mr. BIELFELD himself and that large portion of our German population, who, following the customs of their native land, congregate together Sunday afternoons and evenings, to enjoy a few social hours. The imputations of the News against the character of the German men and women who thus visit BIELFELD'S Garden are grossly false, and utterly uncalled for. Mr. B. himself is an old resident of our city, a man of intelligence and fair standing, and deservedly popular with his countrymen.

ANOTHER PRIZE FIGHT.—It was rumored on the streets yesterday that a prize fight for the championship of Wisconsin is on the tapis, and will soon come off in this city. The parties are DANIEL HANNER, democratic candidate for the Assembly from the Third Ward, and JOHN FIGHTING POTTER, M. C., both well known to the "sporting" fraternity. The time has not been determined as yet, but the place designated is Bielfeld's Garden, in the First Ward. POTTER is now being trained for the contest by an eminent bruiser. He eats nothing but grasshopper soup, and his only drink is what is termed, in the vernacular of the ring, a burguellian, which consists of the sweat extracted from the wigs of Mississippi representatives.—News of yesterday.

This is the sort of slang with which the News daily assails JOHN F. POTTER. It is possible that Dan. Hafter, the News' candidate for the Assembly in the Third Ward, may enjoy the joke; but we doubt whether the respectable portion of the Democracy admire this style of "argument," or whether Mr. BERIAH BROWN, who has been courteously treated by the Republican press, will be benefited by such advocacy. Certainly, Mr. POTTER will not be prejudiced in the public estimation by blackguardism like the above.

THE CONGRESSIONAL VOTE IN PENNSYLVANIA.—The Philadelphia Bulletin has the official vote for members of Congress in all the districts at the late election in Pennsylvania, showing the following result: Opposition members elected, twenty; Anti-Lecompton Democrats, three; supporters of the Buchanan administration, two. The regular opposition majority was 44,155; the Anti-Lecompton vote was 29,417; total opposition majority, 73,572.

The Crops of Canada for 1858.

Mr. WILLIAM HUTTON, Secretary of the Bureau of Agricultural Statistics of Toronto, writes to the Globe that he has received one hundred returns from municipalities and from private individuals, many of whom state that they have consulted other parties likely to give correct information with regard to the probable yield of crops of 1858, and that he is desirous to lay the result before the public, as it may be important to know what the probable exports from Canada will be, as compared with other seasons.

The hundred returns are the united opinions of about five hundred of the most intelligent farmers, and have all the appearance of truthfulness; they comprise fourteen from Lower Canada, from ten counties, and eighty-six from Upper Canada, from thirty-six counties. Seven Lower Canada and three Upper Canada returns report that no winter wheat, or very little, is grown. The average growth of the thirty-six winter wheat growing counties is only twelve bushels; that of forty-six spring wheat growing counties is 18½ bushels per acre.

Taking the average of winter wheat at eighteen bushels per acre, the deficiency of this year's crop will be 33½ per cent: and taking the average of spring wheat at sixteen bushels per acre, the deficiency will be about 15 per cent.

The agreeable extent of winter wheat is probably one-third greater than that of spring wheat, but this year's experience will diminish the extent of winter wheat and extend that of spring wheat, particularly that of the species called Fife, or Glasgow wheat, which nearly all the returns represent as entirely free from rust and very nearly free from midge, and especially so when sown in April or after the 24th of May; either very early or very late.

The winter wheat called "Mediterranean," is also stated by four parties to be entirely free from rust or midge, and this is corroborated by several writers in the Country Gentleman, and other New York papers. The opinion as to its quality in other respects varies very materially. It is not universally recommended, but has some warm advocates as a prolific wheat. Had the Fife wheat been universally sown, the crop of spring wheat would have been a full average.

When it is considered that winter wheat on summer fallows requires the occupation of the land two years, and spring wheat only one, the farmer will probably endeavor to adapt his system to the cultivation of spring wheat where naked summer fallow can be dispensed with, and the year's experience is very much in favor of spring wheat. The breadth of winter wheat sown is already much diminished, but what is growing has been generally sown very early, and had a most flourishing and luxuriant appearance.

Three counties of Lower Canada, Two Mountains, Argenteuil, and Pontiac have reported the successful growth of winter wheat, two having reported twenty bushels per acre, and the other (Argenteuil) fifteen. The counties in Upper Canada which have reported freedom from the midge are fourteen.

With regard to other crops Mr. HUTTON says: Rye, barley, oats, and peas, appear to be full average crops with very few exceptions. About ten report failure of the oat crop from rust and wet, and partial failure of the rye crop from the midge, which they assert has attacked that crop, and in some cases barley as well as wheat, and the cause of rust is universally allowed to be the want of proper drainage and of free circulation of air. Two returns from Essex, two from Kent, two from Frontenac, two from Middlesex, one from North Waterloo, and one from Elgin, report almost a total failure in the oat crop.

The inferences Mr. HUTTON would draw from these hundred returns are:

1st. That the whole wheat crop of Canada for 1858, including both winter and spring wheat, is about 25 per cent. below the general yearly average, allowing for the good quality of the spring wheat and winter wheat, which have escaped the midge and rust—the samples of both being excellent.

2nd. That the crops of rye, barley, and oats are about a fair average, notwithstanding the partial failure of the last named.

3rd. That the pea crop is a little beyond the average—say 10 per cent.

4th That the potato crop is about 25 per cent. deficient, allowing for the excellent quality, which is above par.

5th. That the Indian Corn crop has been much less cultivated than usual, owing to the planting season being extremely wet, and that there will be a very small surplus of this grain beyond what will be required for domestic purposes, forty seven returns having reported that there is little or none grown this season.

Waupun.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 26, '58.

To the Editor of the News:

The Hon. John Taylor, a good and reliable democrat, appeared to be the choice of both democrats and republicans to represent the assembly district of Waupun, Oakfield, &c. Mr. Taylor was instrumental in locating the State Prison at that place. He done so by representing to the legislature that he had discovered a salt spring and a quantity of Egyptian marble, to work which would afford steady and remunerative employment for the convicts for all future time. I would not be surprised if Mr. Taylor should discover some other hidden treasure, that would induce the legislature to locate the Capitol there also. Our Milwaukee members must have a locust for John on that question.

I hope that Milwaukee will emulate the wisdom of Waupun, and send her best men to represent her. If she does not, the Capitol will go to Waupun or some other place.

A MILWAUKEEAN.

—News of yesterday.

The advice given by this correspondent of the News is sound. But see the list of Democratic nominees for the Legislature from this City and County for samples of Milwaukee's "best men!"

THE LATEST LIBEL SUIT.—The New York Express having published a paragraph to the effect that "Miss MCMAHON, the actress, was hissed off the stage at Detroit," the husband of "Mrs. MCMAHON," the veritable amateur tragedienne, of "brown stone front memory," has served the editor with the notice of the commencement of a suit for libel. The editor thinks he can't attend to it, being perfectly willing to leave it to a sheriff's jury to say how much Mrs. MCMAHON is aggrieved because Miss MCMAHON was hissed off the stage—when in fact, she wasn't.

PHILADELPHIA.—The North American, of Philadelphia, claims that the population of that city now numbers 608,927. This includes the whole county of Philadelphia, which is very extensive and contains a number of populous villages. Kensington, Southwark, Moyamensing, the Northern Liberties, Manayunk, Germantown, Frankfort, Holmesburg, Bustletown, Hamilton, Marina, &c., are all now counted in a census of Philadelphia. The whole area thus included is about 155 square miles.

AVENGING BLAIR'S DEFEAT.—The New York Times thus comments upon the recent elections:

TWENTY FOR ONE.—In the recent elections the Opposition took a sweeping revenge for the loss of Francis P. Blair, Jr. On his political grave twenty Democratic victims have bled. Thirteen Lecompton ghosts crossed the Styx from Pennsylvania, four from Ohio, and three from Indiana. Well may the wrathful shade of Blair be appeased.

THE FEMALE WALKING MATCH.—The trial of endurance between two women in New York, calling themselves "Flora Temple" and "Prioress," was ended on Saturday morning at three o'clock, by mutual consent, neither claiming the victory. They had been on their feet for 63 hours, and were suffering seriously from exhaustion.

CHARACTERISTIC ON BOTH SIDES.—There is no people in the world with whom eloquence is so universal a gift as the Irish. When Leitch Ritchie was traveling in Ireland, he passed a man who was a painful spectacle of pallor, squalor and raggedness. His heart smote him, and he turned back. "If you are in want," said Ritchie, with some degree of pasvishness, "why don't you beg?" "Sure it's begging I am, yer honor!" "You didn't say a word." "Ov course not, yer honor; but see how the skin is speakin' through the holes in me trowsers! and the bones cryin' out through me skin! Look at me sunken cheeks, and the famine sharin' in me eyes! Man, alive! im't it beggin' I am with a hundred tongues."

A Song for Republicans on the Eve of Election.

BY WHITTIER.

From cold to gray, our mild sweet day
Of Indian Summer fades too soon;
But, tenderly, above the sea,
Hangs, pure and calm, the Hunter's moon.

In its pale fire the village spire
Shows like the zodiac's spectral trance;
The painted walls, whereon it falls,
Transfigured stand in marble trance;

O'er fallen leaves the west wind grieves,
Yet comes the seed time round again;
And morn shall see the state sown free
With baleful tares or healthy grain.

Along the street the shadows meet
Of Destiny, whose hands conceal
The moulds of fate that shape the state,
And make or mar the common weal.

Around I see the powers that be,
I stand by Empire's primal springs;
And princes meet, in every street
And hear the tread of uncrowned kings!

Hark! through the crowd the laugh runs loud,
Beneath the sad rebuking moon;
God save the land, a careless hand
May shake or traverse ere morrow's noon!

No jest is this; one cast amiss
May blast the hope of Freedom's year.
Oh! take me where archpriests of prayer,
And foreheads bowed in reverend fear:

Not lightly fall, beyond recall
The written scrolls a breath can flout;
The crowning fact, the kingliest act
Of freedom, is a freeman's vote!

For pearls that gem a diadem,
The diver in a deep sea dives;
The regal right we boast to-night,
Is ours through costlier sacrifices;

The blood of Vane, his prison pain,
Who braved the path the pilgrim trod;
And her's whose faith grew strength from death,
And prayed her Russell up to God!

Our hearts grow cold, we lightly hold
The right which brave men died to gain;
The stake, the cord, the axe, the sword,
Grim nurses at its birth of pain.

Your shadows rend, and o'er us bend,
Oh, martyrs, with your crowns and palms,
Breathe through these throngs your battlesongs,
Your scaffold prayers and dungeon psalms.

Look from the sky, like God's great eye,
Thou solemn moon, with searching beams,
Till in the sight of thy pure light
Our mean self-seekings meaner seem.

Shame from our hearts unworthy arts,
The fraud designed, the purpose dark,
And suffer not in hands we lay
Profanely on the sacred Ark.

To party claims and private aims,
Reveal that august face of Truth,
To which are given the age of Heaven,
The beauty of immortal youth.

So shall our voice of sovereign choice
Swell to the deep bass of duty done;
And strike the key of time to be,
When God and man shall speak as one!

The Assumption of Railroad Debts---An Unmitigated Falsehood Respecting Gov. Randall.

The Patriot, of this morning, publishes, with great typographical display, the following extract from the Oshkosh Democrat:

"Perhaps it is not generally known that a wide spread movement is on foot in this State to have the State assume the railroad indebtedness of the several towns and cities, and thus free them from their load of debt, and form a sinking fund for home banking purposes. Gov. Randall has signified his intention of laying the matter before our next Legislature, and although it may not carry next winter, it certainly will within a year or two. We have not time to discuss this project now, and can only say that it will save many hundred thousand dollars a year to Wisconsin, and be no injury to any one. And now if we should refuse to build up our city for less of a little tax in twenty years from this time, and next winter the State should assume all such liabilities, we should feel rather silly."

We are authorized to say that the statement in regard to Gov. Randall is wholly false. The article from which this extract was taken, was published by the Democrat the day previous to a local election in Oshkosh on the subject of loaning the credit of the city to aid a certain railroad, and was designed to encourage the people to vote the loan with the idea that the State should hereafter assume it.—Madison Journal

From the Albany Evening Journal.

City Bonds for Railroad Purposes.

An important case (Bank of Rome vs. Village of Rome) in regard to the liability of cities for subscriptions to railroad enterprises was decided at the recent term of the Court of Appeals.

A Railroad scheme was projected a few years ago in Rome—one of that swarm of Railroad schemes which sprung up like mushrooms and disappeared almost as suddenly. The village, by a popular vote, subscribed for Stock and issued Bonds to pay for it. The Railway was never built and the stock proved worthless. Thereupon, the village declined to pay interest on the Bonds. The Bank of Rome, holding on them, when one of the coupons fell due, brought suit to compel payment. The defence was that the law authorizing the subscription and issue of Bonds is unconstitutional, on the double ground that the operation of the act was made to depend upon an approving vote of the tax-payers of Rome, and that the Legislature has not the power to authorize a municipal corporation to engage in the construction of a Railroad outside of its limits, or other industrial enterprise which may result in imposing a burden on the property of its citizens against the will of a minority.

The act was sustained against both objections. It was held not to be within the decision holding the Free School an act unconstitutional, because the question whether it should become a law was submitted to the whole body of electors.—In this case the propriety of acting under the law—not the operation of the law itself—was submitted to a local constituency and was a matter of local concern. The other objection is answered by the plenary power of the Legislature to authorize taxation for works of public utility, which may be exercised either directly or through the agency of the municipalities supposed to have a local and peculiar interest in the work.

The case of Rome is that of nearly every city and large village in the State, and the decision therefore assumes a wide importance.

DEATH OF BARON WARD, THE HOSTLER FARMER OF PARMA.—Baron Ward, the famed Yorkshire groom, who played so prominent a part at the court of Parma, died the night of October 5th, at Vienna. The history of this extraordinary man is full of remarkable events. He left Yorkshire a boy in the pay of Prince Lichtenstein of Hungary, and after a four years' successful career on the turf at Vienna as jockey he became employed by the then reigning Duke of Lucca. He was at Lucca promoted from the stable to be valet to his Royal Highness. This service he performed up to 1846. About that period he was made Master of the Horse to the Ducal Court. Eventually he became Minister of the Household and Minister of Finance, which office he held when the Duke abdicated in 1848. At this period he became an active agent of Austria during the revolution. As Austria triumphed he returned to Parma as Prime Minister, and negotiated the abdication of Charles II, and placed the youthful Charles III on the throne, who, it will be remembered, was assassinated before his own palace in 1854. As soon as Charles III. came to the throne the then Baron Ward was sent to Germany by his patron as Minister Plenipotentiary, to represent Parma at the court of Vienna. This post he held up to the time of his royal patron's tragical end. When the present Duchess Regent assumed State authority, Ward retired from public life, and took to agricultural pursuits in the Austrian dominions. Without any educational foundation he contrived to write and speak German, French and Italian, and conducted the affairs of State with considerable cleverness, if not with remarkable straightforwardness. Baron Ward was married to an humble person of Vienna, and has left four children. Perhaps no man of modern times passed a more varied and more romantic life than Ward, the groom, the statesman and friend of sovereigns. From the stable he rose to the highest offices of a little kingdom, at a period of great European political interest, and died in retirement, pursuing the rustic occupation of a farmer, carrying with him to the grave many curious arcana imperii.

OPENING FOR AMERICAN ENTERPRISE IN CHINA.—Under the new treaty with China, Americans have a wide field opened to them. Eleven new ports are opened to their Ships; they had five before, making in all sixteen. They can take the Coasting Trade away from the lumbering junks that now monopolize it.

They can go 150 miles up the great River Yangtsze-Kiang, and turn it into a sort of Chinese Hudson, with schooners steamboats and barges.

They can go into the interior, buy produce and sell merchandize, hire men and boats, travel for trade or pleasure, among the rice fields and tea-gardens, up and down the Grand Canal, under the Great Wall, and even in the hitherto inaccessible streets of Pekin. Passports from their Consuls will protect their baggage from search and themselves from molestation.

They are to pay one-fifth less tonnage duty, and only five per cent export duty on tea, and four the duties they thus pay in, the Mandarians are to pay out again indemnity for losses suffered by American Merchants and residents at Canton.

THE FLAG OF THE WORLD.—The Americans of Victoria asked permission to rear a liberty pole, on which they would put the star spangled flag. The request was instantly declined. "Well," said the crowd, "let's raise the pole and stick the flag of all nations upon it." And so they did what they said they would do, and a petticoat waved from the liberty pole!—Sierra (Cal) Citizen.

☞ There were 860 deaths in New York last week, showing a decrease of 70 as compared with the mortality of the week previous.

A GOVERNOR NON PLUSSED.—The other night as the Ministers were returning from Conference in the E. T. & Ga Railroad, an amusing occurrence took place between Gov. Brown and Parson Brownlow. Just before the cars arrived at Knoxville, Gov. Brown came up, and taking the Parson by the hand, remarked:

"How do you do, brother Brownlow? I am happy to see you."

The courtesy was returned, when the Governor continued:

"I hope you will moderate in all your notions of propriety in regard to your fellow-citizens—live a good christian—and last, though not least, become a good Democrat."

The parson, with the eccentric look, peculiar to himself, stretched himself up and remarked:

'Governor, an old gentleman of your politics, many hundred years ago, took our savior upon a mountain and preached just such a sermon."

The outburst of laughter can be better imagined than described.

THE DEMOCRACY AND THE TARIFF.—The history of parties furnishes no parallel to the hypocrisy and deception of the present Democratic party. By their free trade policy, having brought the country to the verge of bankruptcy and ruin, now, when they hear in thunder tones the indignant voice of the beggared and starving operatives, throughout the land, and fearing that their days of misrule will soon be brought to a close, they are adopting their old tactics of fraud and deception, with the hope of again deceiving the honest yeomanry.

Many of the journals, and numbers of the leading Democratic politicians, who were until very lately openly declaring that there should be no change in the tariff system, are now becoming the most ardent advocates of a change. We think the people will not soon forget the celebrated Kane letter, and the base fraud of Polk, Dallas, and the tariff of 1842.

☞ A WONDERFUL REMEDY.—Mr. E. D. Woods, late Justice of the Peace, East Birmingham, Pa., says:

"I have been afflicted with a disease of the stomach, palpitation of the heart and nervous headache, for nearly fifteen years, and have spent some hundreds of dollars in order to effect a cure, but to no purpose. After having used three bottles of your Holland Bitters, I feel myself entirely restored. I can eat and sleep well, and attend to my business with pleasure, and would therefore recommend it to those who are similarly afflicted."

MARRIED LOVE-MAKING;
—OR—
WHO COULD HAVE BELIEVED IT?
A TREATISE FROM THE FRENCH.

There lived in Vienna a young man of rank and fortune, who bore a strong resemblance to many other men of that and every city, for he was the dupe to all the follies of fashion and high life. He combined a flexible heart with a handsome person; it had cost his mother a great deal of trouble to make him what is called a puppy; but by indefatigable diligence she had at last effected her purpose. All the ladies consequently loved him, and he loved them all in return.—It has been said that his attachments once or twice had even been of more than a month's duration, but never did he impose any constraint upon himself or the object of his affection, by an irksome fidelity. He possessed the nicest powers of perception, whenever any word or look summoned him to victory; but he always had the good manners to pay every attention to the clock, when it announced the hour of parting.

With these qualifications, he was certain of success with the ladies. He paid his devoirs to all, enchanted all, and was at last tired of all. In one of his moments of torpid satiety, our hero had returned home to supper. Happy he is who feels the time least oppressive when at home—he belongs to the better kind of men. Our young count threw himself upon the sofa, stretched his limbs, yawned, &c. Suddenly it occurred to him that he was married. No wonder that we should have forgotten it, since he himself only just now recollected it.

"Apropos," said he, and rung the bell—a servant entered.

"Go to your mistress and ask if I may have the pleasure of seeing her?"

The servant listened attentively, not believing the testimony of his own ears. The count repeated his orders, which the servant at length obeyed, shaking his head as he went. The countess was an amiable daughter of a country gentleman—she was a flower which, from the pressure of the court atmosphere, drooped, but did not quite wither; to avoid ennui, she had no recourse but to swim with the tide of high life. She and her husband sometimes met—they never avoided, nor even courted each other's society. Before marriage they had seen little of each other, and after it they had no time to devote to such an employment. There were people enough who spared the count the trouble of admiring his wife's perfections, and if they made no impression on her heart they at least gratified her vanity.

Her husband's message was delivered to her in a moment when her state of mind was much the same as his,—she knew not what to think of this unexpected visit—she replied, however, that she would be happy to see him. He entered—hoped he was not troublesome, and took a chair—made remarks on the weather—and recounted the news of the day. The conversation, as far as related to the subjects of it, was quite common, but his vivacity and Amelia's genius, inspired it with interest. The time passed they knew not how; the count looked at his watch—was surprised to find it so late, and requested permission to sup with his wife.

"With all my heart," replied Amelia, "if you can be content with my homely fare."

Supper was brought—they ate, and were merry, without being noisy. This calm pleasure possessed to them the charm of novelty; they were both pleasant without wishing to appear so, as is generally the case with most people. They were quite new acquaintances—the hours flew swiftly away, and the time for retiring to rest being arrived, the count took leave of the countess, highly pleased with his visit.

The next day he was invited to a concert, and did not learn, till it was late, that one of the virtuoses being ill the concert was deferred. How was he to pass the tedious evening? He inquired, as he passed, after his wife, and was informed that she was somewhat indisposed.

"Well," thought he, "common civility requires that I should visit upon her, and ask her personally how she does."

He sent a message, requesting that he might be allowed to sit with her till supper, and was very politely received. He was cheerful, lively and gallant. The supper hour arrived, and this time Amelia begged him to stay. He had been invited to a casino party after the concert, not withstanding which he remained with his wife, and their conversation was quite as pleasant, and less reserved than that of the preceding visit.

"Do you know," said Amelia, "that the party to which you were invited would find a little trouble in discovering the cause of your absence?"

He smiled and paused for a few moments.

"I must tell you something of confidence," began he at length, while he was playing with his fork, "something which you will perhaps think rather candid than gallant; you cannot imagine how much you are improved since your marriage."

"My marriage!" answered Amelia, in a jocose tone, "I believe took place about the same time as your own."

"Very true my lady," replied he, "but it is inconceivable how so happy an alteration can have taken place in you, dear—pardon me—you had so much rustic bashfulness, it is scarcely possible to recognize you—your genius no longer the same; even your features are much improved."

"Well, my lord," replied the countess, "without wishing to return the compliment, all that you have said of me I have thought of you.—upon my word," added she, "it is well that no one hears us, for it almost seems that we are making love."

The dialogue continued long in the same style, till Amelia at length looked at her watch, and in a fascinating tone remarked that it was late. The count arose unwillingly, slowly took his leave, and as slowly retired to the door—suddenly he again turned round.

"My lady," said he, "I find it very tedious to breakfast alone—may I be allowed to take my chocolate with you?"

"If you please," answered Amelia and they parted, still more pleased with each other.

The next morning it occurred to the count those frequent visits to his wife might give rise to scandalous reports. He then desired his valet not to mention in the circumstance to any one. He then put on an elegant morning gown, and went slowly over to Amelia.

Amelia had just risen in the most cheerful humor. The bloom upon her cheeks rivalled the blush of morning. She was animated, and witty—in short, she was enchanting, and her husband, in an hour, discovered how much pleasanter it was to breakfast in company, than to sit alone, and opposite a glass gazing at his person, and looking into his yawning mouth.

"Why don't you come here every day," said Amelia, "if my company is pleasant to you?"

He answered that he feared his presence might prevent the visits of others.

"I shall miss no one," replied she, "as long as you indemnify me by your society."

"Upon my word," said the count, "I have more than once wished that I was not your lady-ship's husband."

"Why so?" demanded Amelia.

"That I might be allowed to tell you," returned he, "how much I loved you."

"Oh! tell me so, I pray," cried she, "if only for the sake of novelty."

"Fear not," answered the count, "I hope, my lady, I shall never so far forget myself; but we have had, I think, two very agreeable tete-a-tetes at supper—how if this evening you were to allow me a third?"

"With all my heart," answered the countess.

The appointment was on both sides exactly adhered to. Their conversation was this time less lively, but brilliant—they gazed as each other's eyes, and spoke less; the count began to assert its influence, and even arrived so far that they once, during a pause, involuntarily squeezed each other's hand across the table, although the servants were still in the room. Who could have believed it?

Amelia very plainly perceived that it was late, but she did not look at her watch. Her husband made not the slightest effort to depart; he complained that he was somewhat tired but not sleepy. In a word, from this day they parted in the morning instead of midnight, because they were then both ready to breakfast together.

The Count, enchanted with his new conquest, eloped with Amelia into the country, where they, with astonishment, discovered that the theatre of nature, and the concert of the nightingales surpassed all other theatres and concerts. They at first thought of staying only a few days—every morning they intended to depart, and every evening they changed their intentions. When autumn, however, approached, they returned to Vienna. The same evening they went to the play, and our hero had the courage to sit in the same box with Amelia.

Who could have believed it? To such a dreadful extent may a man be led by one thoughtless step. Ye happy husbands in high life, take warning by the mournful example of our count!

THE IMPORTANCE OF REGULARITY.—It is highly important that mankind should observe strict regularity in all the affairs of life. Regularity it does health—Irregularity produces disease. Most people are particular about eating at regular hours—retiring to rest at regular hours—rising at a regular time—and we should be equally as particular about discharging, from the bowels, the feculent and acrimonious humors of the body at a regular hour—to empty the bowels of their contents at a regular time. If mankind would observe this great and important duty, and prepare their bowels to more regularity, they would avoid much sickness. Radway's Regulators induce Regularity. They regulate every organ to regular action. The Liver, Pancreas, Kidneys, Heart, Skin, Bowels, and all other organs, will, after the action of Radway's Regulators, move with all the regularity of clock work. Persons troubled with Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, &c., will find, that, by taking one of Radway's Regulators every night, on going to bed, they will have a pleasant discharge of the bowels in the morning at a regular period of time. One Regulator will regulate—three will purge.

TO THE PUBLIC.

In answer to the numerous letters addressed to me on the subject of the Mustang Liniment, I would say that I have had no connection with that article for several years. It was invented by me, and while out up under my control and supervision, was universally accepted by the public, as the best liniment in the world. In 1854 I sold out my interest in it to other parties, and since that time it has passed through the hands of several persons, each of whom have seen fit to reconstruct it to manufacture it of inferior and cheaper articles, and thus to entirely destroy its value as a medical remedy, trusting for success in selling to its former highly established reputation. Its present proprietors have gone so far as to substitute other articles in the composition for those in the original proscription, so that the Mustang Liniment now vended possesses no one of the distinguishing characteristics of the genuine article, which was originally invented and manufactured by me. These parties, to enable themselves with more facility to foist their worthless and injurious article on the public, use my name as its sponsor, calling it "Brago's" Mustang Liniment, and cautioning the public to beware of any other Brago's Liniment as an imposition. This is done with a view of creating a sale for their article of "BRAGO'S ARCTIC LINIMENT," an article more recently invented by me, and possessing all the virtues of the original Mustang, with some improvements—the result of experience and the discoveries—and manufactured by Brago & Burrowes, which firm is composed of my son, Oliver T. Bragg, and Michael Burrowes. This article is superior in many respects to the Mustang, when it was put up pure and in good faith, and is immeasurably superior to the article now vended as the Mustang Liniment. It is also the only liniment manufactured to which my name is appended by my authority or consent. In connection, I cannot hold myself responsible for any of the evil results of using the Mustang Liniment now vended, and especially after this public disclaimer of any connection with its proprietorship or manufacture.
Respectfully, A. M. BRAGG, M. D.

COMMERCIAL & FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY SENTINEL, } Thursday Evening, Oct. 28, 1858. }

MONEY MATTERS.—Currency is in tolerably good supply and no difficulty is experienced in negotiating good business paper at the usual bank rates. There is a little more demand for Currency than there was a week ago, consequent upon the renewed activity in the produce market Note brokers rates range from 1¼ to ¾ per cent per month, according to time and reliability of collaterals. We repeat our quotations of Gold and Exchange:

Exchange on N. Y. city, selling,...1¼ cent premium.
" " " " buying,...¾ " "
Gold, buying.....¾ " "
" selling.....1 " "

MILWAUKEE DAILY MARKET.

The rain storm which has prevailed all day, caused a partial suspension in business of every description.—Wheat continues firm at yesterday's quotations, and in some instances very choice samples of milling wheat sold at an advance. The range for extra is 8 a85c, the former being the ruling figures. The principal sales of No. 1 were at 75c, extra No. 1 selling at 73.75c. Flour remains firm and unchanged, and we note no alteration in prices of other articles.

The Albany Barley Market is thus reported by the Statesman of the 26th:

We give the tide water receipts of barley in another column, 655,486 bus were received during the 3d week of October. This quantity is far ahead of all expectation, and is but 25,000 bus short of the receipts last year of the month of November. The aggregate receipts of this season, to the 23d inst., are 119,801 bus greater than the receipts of 1857, to the close of navigation. The excess in the receipts of the season to the 23d inst., compared with those of the year 1857 to the same day, is 817,196 bus. On Saturday we intimated the excess in the entire receipts of the season, to the 23d inst., might be 1,000,000 bus. Now we show an excess of 1,075,286 bus. The only sale of barley reported to-day is 2,700 bush Canada West, 9Tc, on Saturday afternoon, 3,703 bus Tompkins County at 90c, and 5,000 bus Niagara County at 91c. There is but little disposition on the part of buyers, notwithstanding the favorable weather, to take hold. The receipts are fair.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, Oct. 28.

The Wheat Market continues buoyant and animated. Buyers were more numerous than sellers during the morning, and bid the market up 1c before receipt of New York news, which latter proving favorable, an advance of 2c additional on No 2 Spring was established, and the market closed firm with buyers and sellers apart. Most holders of No. 2 Spring are out of market, or asking prices (67 to 70c) which virtually amount to the same thing at present. The sales of the morning aggregate about 80,-000 bu. All grades.

Corn is as yet neglected. The amount offered is quite small, and buyers are not numerous at current rates.—About 7,000 bushels sold during the morning.

No change of note in the minor grains. Oats are a little firmer and have advanced a trifle. Flour is firmer, but without activity.

Lake Freights are very dull yet, and vessels pressing on the market.—Journal of last evening.

NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINES

Latest Improvement—Watson's Patent.

THE MANUFACTURER and Agent desire to call the attention of the public to this cheap labor saving machine, and now, since the great improvements which have been added to it, recommend it with the utmost confidence, as it has been in operation in this city a sufficient length of time to prove its utility. These machines are made strong and durable, and with one-fourth part of the care required to manage a higher priced machine. They will do as much work, and as well as the most expensive machine. Each machine is thoroughly tested before it is sold, and warranted to give satisfaction, if the instructions are followed with even an ordinary amount of care, and will be kept in order one year free of charge.

Price of improved machine, complete, (including stand,) $35. Persons wishing to purchase a machine are invited to bring their work with them and test the machine to their entire satisfaction, before purchasing.

RICHARDSON'S

IRISH LINENS!

Damasks, Diapers, &c.

CONSUMERS of Richardson's Linens, and those desirous of obtaining the Genuine Goods, should see that the articles they purchase are sealed with the full name of the firm,

Richardson, Sons & Owden,

as a guarantee of the soundness and durability of the Goods.

This caution is rendered essentially necessary, as large quantities of inferior and defective Linens are presented, season after season, and sealed with the name of RICHARDSON, by Irish Houses, who, regardless of the injury thus inflicted alike on the American consumer and on the manufacturers of the genuine Goods, will not readily abandon a business so profitable, while purchasers can be imposed upon with Goods of a worthless character.
